EXCURSIONS

Excursions are offered on an intimate shared basis, led by one of our expert interpreters, alongside a few other hotel guests. Private experiences can be arranged for an additional charge or by contracting the private program basis.

Our team's knowledge and skills will allow you to explore and experience the authentic Colca Valley thoroughly. The service is offered in Spanish or English, however other languages are available upon request and are subject to additional costs.

Our excursions are not recommended for children under 16. However, some excursions (marked as Suitable for Children) will allow kids under the strict supervision of their parents or tutors. Please note that PUQIO is not responsible for the safety and well-being of children during the excursions.
